1. Discussion on the new schedule	Concerns are expressed for the 3,0-3,49 DUPR rated group to have the opportunity to play-up. Perhaps we can allow them to improve their DUPR score by attending DUPR rated sessions. The 4,25 + is a relatively small group of members and they cannot fill all the courts. Has this been considered in the new schedule? Spouses playing down to the level of their partner is seen as an option to be considered to allow spouses to play together. After a lengthy discussion it is suggested to have the DUPR and scheduling committees meet jointly to present our concerns to both groups and have them discuss these issues as their proposals impact each other, and the culture we want to promote in the club. The proper timing to introduce the new schedule should also	. Disiplinary issue	A few members attempted to manipulate their Rating in DUPR The board will reach out to DUPR for advice and evaluate if disciplinary measures, if any, are required.
